

Navigating Your Career

Who Is This Program For?

We can get so busy working in our jobs that we can sometimes forget to prioritise our careers and our professional development. This 1-day workshop is designed for busy professionals who want practical, pragmatic development that's designed to be engaging, interactive and long-lasting. The workshop focusses on helping you to develop the right mindset, skillset and toolkit to manage effective interpersonal communication skills with diverse people and in diverse settings.

Learning Outcomes.

- Discuss common career inhibitors and accelerators;
- Identify your motivations, aspirations, goals and development themes
- Articulate your professional values and know your story
- Explore your purpose and passions
- Identify how to expand your networks for satisfaction and success
- Identify other practical tips and strategies to navigate your career more intentionally.

Session Length

9:30am-4pm in person

Having the opportunity to clarify my strengths, values, passions and purpose was really helpful and timely. Diving into career inhibitors and accelerators was really useful to make sure I'm spending my time and energy in the right way and not undermining my success and opportunities for advancement. The session and discussions were engaging and thought provoking and I left feeling much clearer and confident with some really great practical tips on what to do to navigate more career (not just be good at my job) more intentionally.

Nell Wilson

PROGRAM FACILITATOR

Contact Nell Wilson

0407 111 598

nell@nellwilson.com.au

Nell Wilson is a globally experienced Executive Coach, Leadership Development Specialist and Consultant. She has held leadership and learning and development roles for over 25 years in the corporate sector in a variety of Australian multi-national organisations. Nell has worked with thousands of Leaders, teams and individuals across the public, private, not-for-profit/for-purpose and NGO sectors.

Her experience spans across a variety of industries and sectors and she works with clients from Government (Federal, State and Local), Investment & Finance, Health, Education, Australian Defence Force, IT, Mining & Resources, Telecommunications, Banking, Manufacturing, Law, Consulting, Media/Advertising, Building/Construction, Police & Emergency Services and Tourism to name a few. Nell has been a people leader for over 19 years so has both credibility and credentials as a leader, leadership specialist and Executive Coach.

Nell is an Accredited Executive Coach with both the International Coaching Federation (ICF) as a 'PCC' (Professional Certified Coach) and with the Institute of Executive Coaching and Leadership (IECL – Level 3). Nell is an Associate with Melbourne Business School and Leadership Victoria, an Accredited Practitioner with Human Synergistics instruments for over 15 years (Lifestyles Indicator – LSI, Manager Impact – M/I, Leadership Impact - L/I, Group Styles Indicator – GSI). Nell is also accredited with the Hermann-Brain Dominance Indicator (HBDI), Situational Leadership II (SLII), all of the Franklin Covey programs and DiSC. Nell also has a Bachelor of Adult Education with the University of Melbourne and is a graduate of the Adaptive Leadership Program at Harvard Business School.

Nell's partners with individuals, teams and organisations in order to help them increase their self-awareness and effectiveness and improve their behaviours and business results in a sustainable way. Her practice is evidence-based and informed by an extensive tool-kit of leadership frameworks and practices and also includes a diverse knowledge base of facilitating and dynamic group processes. She has helped thousands of individuals and leaders identify their strengths and barriers to success, gaining deep insights and achieving real change for themselves and those they lead. Nell's facilitation style is described as energetic, practical and insightful and usually leaves a lasting impression on others.

Accredited
Coach

Accredited practitioner

LSI M/I L/I GSI HUMAN SYNERGISTICS